Applications due: Monday, November 22, 2021

Virtual Information Session: Tuesday, November 16, 2021 (1p-2p) via Zoom

Funded by the Anne & Bill Newton Endowment Fund, the Robert W. Woodruff Library will award one fellowship to an advanced graduate student. The 2022-2023 Anne and Bill Newton Fellow will assist the staff of the Stuart A. Rose Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library with projects related to its instruction and outreach program and will conduct 2-4 short term projects in these areas. The Newton Fellow will be expected to research, design, and assess instructional curriculum appropriate for the use of Rose Library exhibitions in undergraduate courses. In addition, the fellow will utilize his/her teaching, writing, and research skills to curate an exhibition that connects the Rose Library's collections to a campus wide discussion. The fellow will be assigned to the Research Services Unit of Rose Library and an interest in the public functions of libraries and archives is not required but preferred.

A virtual Information Session will be held on Tuesday, November 16, 2021 (1p-2p) via Zoom. Please register on the LGS Advanced Fellowships webpage.

Fellowships are generally 9-month placements (September 1 – May 31) with a stipend of $23,831 along with a 100 percent subsidy for the Emory University Student Health Insurance Plan (EUSHIP). Please note that the first stipend payment will be on September 30.
